The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XVIII*th* Year.] THURSDAY, January 13, 1763. [N°. 923.]

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

St. James's, October 4.

THIS Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled, waited on his Majeſty, and being introduced to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. William Finch, Eſq; Vice-Chamberlain, made their Compliments in the following Addreſs, which was ſpoken by Sir William Moreton, Knight, the Recorder.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of your City of London, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the late ſignal Succeſs with which it has pleaſed the Almighty to bleſs your Majeſty's Arms, in the Reduction of the Havannah and its Dependencies (moſt properly ſtiled the Key of the Spaniſh Weſt-Indies, and deemed impregnable) under a Capitulation that does Honour to the Spirit and Humanity of the Britiſh Nation.

It is with the higheſt Pleaſure we reflect upon the Value and Importance of this Conqueſt, attended with the Acquiſition of immenſe Riches, and an irreparable Blow to the Trade and Naval Power of Spain. A Conqueſt, that gives additional Luſtre to an already glorious and ſucceſsful War; and which cannot but ſtrike Terror into an Enemy, not only unprovoked, but inſenſible to the repeated Inſtances of your Majeſty's Good-will, Friendſhip, and Moderation; and convince them, that there is no Attempt, how arduous ſoever, but what, planned and directed by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, may, under the Divine Providence, be effected by the Harmony, Activity, and Abilities of ſuch Commanders, and the Valour, Zeal, and Emulation of your Fleets and Armies, regardleſs of any Fatigues or Dangers, where-ever the Glory of their King and Country is concerned.

May the Poſſeſſion of this very valuable Conqueſt, together with other happy Conſequences of your Majeſty's Meaſures, thus wiſely and vigorouſly purſued, prove the Means of effectually defeating the ambitious Views of your Majeſty's Enemies, and of for ever diſſolving the late alarming Compact of the Houſe of Bourbon, calculated to deſtroy the Commerce of your Subjects, and ſo replete with Danger to the Exiſtence of your Majeſty's antient and natural Ally, and to the Independence of the Reſt of the Powers of Europe.

And we beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that your faithful Citizens of London, animated by the warmeſt Senſe of Duty to your Majeſty, and their Country, will, with unwearied Chearfulneſs, contribute their utmoſt Efforts to ſtrengthen your Majeſty's Hands, until your Enemies, moved by their own repeated Loſſes and Diſtreſſes, ſhall be diſpoſed to liſten to ſuch Terms of Accommodation, as your Royal Wiſdom ſhall think adequate to our glorious Succeſſes; and ſuch as may effectually ſecure the Trade and Navigation of your Subjects; and prevent the Calamities of a future War.

Signed by Order of Court, JAMES HODGES.

To which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer.

I RETURN you my cordial Thanks for this very dutiful and loyal Addreſs, and for the continual Proof you give me of your Attachment to my Perſon and Government.

The able Conduct, unwearied Activity, and exemplary Harmony, of my Commanders by Sea and Land, and the intrepid Valour of my Fleets and Armies, have never been more conſpicuous, than on the preſent Occaſion, and have acquired additional Glory to the Britiſh Arms.

The ſteady Affections of my People, and their Zeal for the Honour of my Crown, will, I truſt, under the Bleſſing of God, enable me to terminate this juſt War, by an equitable, glorious, and laſting Peace.

The Proſperity of the City of London, and the extenſive Trade and Navigation of my faithful Subjects, are, and ever will be, the conſtant Objects of my unwearied Care and Attention.

They were all received very graciouſly; and had the Honour to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand.

LONDON, October 12.

Excluſive of the Advantages ariſing to this Nation from the Conqueſt of the Havannah, as the Key to the Weſt-Indies, the Number of capital Ships of War in that Harbour (within one) equals the Number that were taken, loſt, or deſtroyed, during the Whole of laſt War, which amounted to no more than 15, from 60 to 74 Guns, ſix of which were deſtroyed at Carthagena, five taken in ſeparate Engagements, two loſt in the Weſt-Indies, and two in Purſuit of Admiral Anſon's Squadron to the South Seas: The Hermione may be ſet againſt the South Sea Expedition; and the ſmall Men of War taken in going to the Havannah, and the Merchant Ships and Treaſure taken in that Harbour, more than equal to all the ſmaller Veſſels and Captures during that tedious War of Nine Years Continuance.

His late Majeſty King George II. declared War againſt Philip V. King of Spain, on the 29th of October, 1739, which was followed by a like Declaration in Spain, on the 17th of November, and Peace was not made till the 19th of October, 1748. The Britiſh Nation wanted a free and uninterrupted Trade in the Seas of America, which was their undoubted Right, tho' that Right had been frequently invaded by the Spaniards; therefore the War was not undertaken to gratify the Views of reſtleſs Ambition, but to maintain the Honour of an injured Nation.

The firſt Blow was ſtruck by the brave Admiral Vernon, who took Porto Bello, on the 22d of November, with only ſix Ships. In 1740, he demoliſhed Chagre; and in 1741, attacked Carthagena, with 29 Ships of the Line, and 15,000 Seamen, who deſtroyed all the Fortifications of the Harbour, ſix Spaniſh Ships of the Line, and ſeven Galleons; but Gen. Wentworth, who had 10,000 Soldiers under his Command, was unſucceſsful on Shore, where he loſt 2000 Men.

Admiral Vernon and General Wentworth, in 1741, alſo undertook the Reduction of the Iſland of Cuba, but the General even abandoned the Attempt againſt St. Jago, which made the Admiral complain, that he was unequally yoked; and the Spaniards merrily ſaid to one another, they believed the Engliſh were only come to a Hunting-Match in their Woods.

That War was very ſparingly carried on againſt the Spaniards in all Parts, but now they are convinced, by the unexpected Reduction of the Havannah, how vulnerable their greateſt Strength is to the Britiſh Arms, when conducted with Spirit and Unanimity both by Sea and Land. They tremble for the Fate of Carthagena, where they have eight Ships of the Line, and the Poſſeſſion of that important Place, which we well know how to attack, will open the Way to Panama, which will enable us to command Mexico and Peru.

Without Doubt, all Engliſhmen wiſh the Crown had no German Dominions, and that our Strength might be kept within our own Iſland: But ſecondary Cauſes have diſpoſed Things otherwiſe, and it is not eaſy to alter them. It might be propoſed to give Hanover to one of the Royal Family; as it would be greatly for the Intereſt both of Great-Britain and Hanover, by taking away a Pretence from France for invading it when at War with us.

This Meaſure is ſaid to be practicable; for by the Feudal Law, by which the Fiefs in Germany are regulated, a Vaſſal can give his Land to whom he will; and there are many Examples in Germany which ſhew, that ſuch Alienations are agreeable to the Germanic Conſtitution. But theſe Writers forget the Golden Bull of Charles IV. whereby it was provided, that the Territories, with the great Offices annexed to them, and by the Poſſeſſion of which, the Electoral Dignity was obtained, ſhould deſcend according to the Right of Primogeniture, and be abſolutely indiviſible, that the Right of each Elector might be the better known, and more effectually ſecured.

According to the Spirit of the Treaties of this Age, Europe requires that the Sovereignty of Spain ſhould be ſeparated from that of Italy; therefore the preſent King of Spain, on his Acceſſion to that Throne in 1759, made a formal Act of Abdication and Settlement of the Crown of the Two Sicilies, in Favour of his third Son, Don Ferdinand, and in Prejudice to the natural Right of his eldeſt Son Don Philip, the Prince Royal.

This poor Prince is now in the 18th Year of his Age, and was in his 15th, when his tender Father thought proper to deprive him of the Trouble of Government, on the Report of his Phyſicians, that they had not been able to find in the unfortunate Prince Royal, either the Principles of Reaſon, Reflection, or Judgment; and that as he had been in this State ever ſince his Infancy, he was not only incapable of any Act of Religion or Reaſon, but there was not even the leaſt Shadow of Hope that he could ever acquire the Uſe of his Faculties.

Thoſe wiſe Phyſicians concluded from thence, that Don King Carlos could not think of diſpoſing of the Crown of the Two Sicilies in Favour of his eldeſt Son, though it might be agreeable to Nature, and his paternal Duty and Affection: And the King declared, that he was conſtrained by the Divine Will, to paſs by the Right of his eldeſt Son, in Favour of the Infant Don Ferdinand, his third Son, whom he left in Poſſeſſion of the Crown of the Two Sicilies, under a Regency of his own Nomination, declaring that the Minority of the Prince, who is now in the 12th Year of his Age, ſhould expire when he has accompliſhed his 16th Year.

But the Report of thoſe Phyſicians is abſurd in the higheſt Degree, and may one Day occaſion the Beginning of a War in Italy; for which there are many Reaſons to be aſſigned.

The laſt Letters received from France, by the Way of Holland, inform us, that what ſtopt the Negociation was, that when the Duke of Bedford propoſed a Ceſſation of Arms in Portugal, under the Guaranty of France, the Marquis de Grimaldi declared, that though he was charged with full Powers, he could not agree to that Propoſal without further Inſtructions from his Court. The Return of the Courier he had diſpatched for them was impatiently expected.

Tranſports are preparing to receive ſome Horſe and Foot Forces on board, deſigned to reinforce the Britiſh Army in Portugal; and we are aſſured ſome other Tranſports will ſoon be contracted for, to carry ſome Troops to the Coaſt of Spain, where a Deſcent is intended to be made as ſoon as poſſible, by Way of a Diverſion in Favour of Portugal.

Letters from the Allied Army adviſe, that the French Garriſon in Caſſel is reduced to the Neceſſity of eating a Kind of Bread made Half of Oats and Half of Rye, and that they are almoſt without Proviſions of any Kind; ſo that the Place muſt ſoon ſurrender.

War, ſays Dr. Smollet, in the Continuation of his Hiſtory, which naturally impedes the Traffic of other Nations, has opened new Sources to the Merchants of Great-Britain: The Superiority of her Naval Power hath cruſhed the Navigation of France, her great Rival in Commerce; ſo that ſhe now ſupplies, on her own Terms, all thoſe foreign Markets at which in Time of Peace ſhe was underſold by that dangerous Competitor. Thus our Trade is augmented, to a ſurpriſing Pitch, and this great Augmentation alone has enabled her to maintain the War, at ſuch an enormous and incredible Expence. As this Advantage will ceaſe when the French are at Liberty to re-eſtabliſh their Commerce, and proſecute it without Moleſtation, it would be for the Intereſt of Great-Britain to be at continual Variance with that reſtleſs Neighbour, provided the Conteſt could be limited to the Operations of a Sea War, in which the Engliſh would always be invincible and victorious. Foreign Nations doubtleſs will be ſurpriſed to learn that above Eight Thouſand Ships are employed by the Traders of Great-Britain; and that the Produce of the Sinking Fund, which is the Overplus produced by all the different Funds appropriated to defray the Intereſt of the national Debt, exceeds annually Three Millions Sterling.

A Perſon Died lately, who left a large Eſtate to a Female Relation, provided ſhe would Marry one of the Name of Pearce. She not knowing any one of that Name, advertiſed in the public Papers, That if any ſuch Perſon would come to her, he might hear of ſomething to his Advantage. At Length one came, to whom ſhe would give 150l. per Annum, if he would Marry her, ſettle the Reſt of her Fortune upon her, and live elſewhere. Which Propoſal he gladly accepted, being juſt releaſed from Jail by the Inſolvent-Act.

EDINBURGH, Sept. 27.

This Day Mr. Johnſon performed his ſurpriſing Feats of Horſemanſhip in Comely-Garden, to the Aſtoniſhment of all the Beholders, who acknowledged that he by far ſurpaſſed any Thing contained in his Advertiſement, of which the following is a Copy.

I. He rides a ſingle Horſe ſtanding upon one Leg, on his Back, and in that Poſition puts the Horſe through all his Exerciſes, whilſt the Horſe keeps Time to the Muſic. He then ſtands with both Feet on his Back, whilſt the Horſe goes three Times round the Green on full Speed. He then lays the Bridle on the Horſe's Neck, and gallops him round without the Aſſiſtance of it.

II. He rides two Horſes, with a Foot in each inſide Stirrup: When the Horſes are at the greateſt Rate, he extends himſelf between them, at full Length; then raiſes himſelf up, and vaults from one to one; ſtands upon the Saddles upright, and gallops three Times round.

III. He rides three Horſes; and, when in full Speed, toſſes his Cap and catches it ſeveral Times.

IV. He rides a ſingle Horſe, and mounts and diſmounts while the Horſe is on full Speed; and, to the great Surpriſe of the Spectators, leaps over the Horſe when at his greateſt Rate.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) Nov. 13.

From Virginia we learn, that the Murrain has lately made its Appearance amongſt the Cattle there. This Diſtemper broke out among our Cattle about 18 Years ago, and ſtill continues in the Province.

We are deſired to make it public, that George Lemond, and Joſeph How, who went as Hoſtages to Cape-François in 1758, for 2000l. Sterling, on Account of Meſſieurs Papley and Boan, Merchants in Jamaica, remained cloſe confined in Goal the 21ſt of Auguſt laſt, only Part of the Ranſom Money having then been paid.

Nov. 20. On Thurſday laſt arrived here from Havannah, his Majeſty's Ship Mercury, Samuel Cranſton Goodall, Eſq; Commander (of whom Sir George Pocock writes very advantageouſly) being ordered hither by Sir George, as an additional Station Ship to the Succeſs and Bonetta. She has on board the Spaniſh Biſhop of St. Jago, and other Eccleſiaſtics, accuſed of dangerous Practices, and ordered to be landed at St. Auguſtine, whither we hear they will be ſent as ſoon as the Bonetta comes in from her preſent Cruize.

Sir George Pocock ſailed for England from Havannah, the ſame Day as the Mercury left it, in the Namure, and took with him the following other Ships of War, viz. Temple, Marlborough, Devonſhire, Infante, San Genaro, and Aſſumption Regiſter Ship (the two laſt, with the Regiſter Ship, taken at Havannah) with about 80 Sail of Tranſports and Merchantmen under his Convoy: He was parted with in the Lat. of St. Auguſtine, the 14th Inſt. and had to that Time taken the moſt extraordinary Care of his Convoy.——The Ships left at Havannah are, the Belleiſle, Rippon, Hampton-Court, and Port-Royal Sloop.——Lord Albemarle, we hear, goes Home in the Rippon about the 1ſt of January.——On the 24th of October, 3 Engliſh Tranſports were loſt, juſt as they came out of the Havannah, by the North Winds ſuddenly ſetting in; one of them was the General Wolfe (an old Indiaman) the Lion was another, the Name of the 3d we have not learnt.

PROVIDENCE (in New-England) Dec. 11.

Laſt Saturday the Brig Britannia, Capt. Dudley Saltonſtall, arrived at New-London, in 40 Days from Coracoa; in whom came Paſſenger Mr. John Snow, of this Town, late Mate of the Brigantine Induſtry, Capt. Philemon Williams, who has been gone near twelve Months, without ever being heard of.——Mr. Snow gives the following Account of the Loſs of ſaid Veſſel, on the Voyage from Barbados to Saltertuda, and the many Difficulties and Hardſhips they afterwards underwent, viz. On the 3d of April laſt, they ſailed from Barbados in the Fleet for Saltertuda, and were to touch at Martinico, but their Veſſel being an extreme heavy Sailer, they ſoon loſt Sight of the Fleet; and after many fruitleſs Efforts to get into Martinico, they bore away for Saltertuda; but were by ſtrong Currents, and adverſe Winds, driven ſo far to Leeward, that on the 17th of April, about 4 o'Clock in the Morning, they unfortunately ran aſhore on the Spaniſh Main at a Place called Cora; where they were ſoon after boarded by 150 Savages from the Shore, who plundered them of every Thing that could be of any Service to them, and turned them aſhore (ſeven in Number) without any Kind of Proviſion to ſubſiſt on, with Directions to go to Maricoy, a Spaniſh Settlement, about 300 Miles from thence. They accordingly ſet out upon their Journey, through a Country they were unacquainted with, and after travelling three Days, in the greateſt Diſtreſs for Want of Subſiſtence, and continually expoſed to wild Beaſts of Prey, and the more ſavage Natives, they were luckily overtaken by 7 Spaniards, who ſupplied them with Refreſhments, and conducted them to the Spaniſh Town. As ſoon as they arrived they were immediately impriſoned, without Diſtinction, in a loathſome Goal, where they all continued for five Months, except one who embraced the Roman Catholic Religion, after a Month's Confinement, and was ſet at Liberty, and treated with great Kindneſs. At length the Spaniſh Governor ordered the ſix that kept ſtaſt to their Faith, on board of a Dutch Sloop that was trading there, in which they got to Coracoa. Capt. Williams died on the 19th ult. on his Paſſage Home, after a few Days Illneſs.

AS the Scheme I some Time ago offered to the PUBLIC, for Circulating a Library through the Province, is not likely to meet with the Succeſs I expected, I preſume it muſt be owing to the too great Latitude of my Plan; the Communication between this and the other Parts of the Province, not being as yet upon ſo regular an Eſtabliſhment, as to admit of it's being carried into Execution in ſo great an Extent, to the Satisfaction of all Parties. For this Reaſon, I am adviſed by my Friends to decline all Thoughts of puſhing it any further for the preſent, as premature, and to contract it within ſuch Limits, that every Subſcriber may, with very little Trouble, have the full Benefit of it. I propoſe therefore to confine my Subſcriptions to ANNAPOLIS, and a Circle of Thirty Miles about it. I preſume no one, who has the leaſt Taſte for BOOKS, or any Inclination to improve his Mind, can think much of the Expence of one Guinea a Year, for the Uſe of ſuch a valuable Collection, ſo plentifully abounding with Matter both for his Uſe and Amuſement; nor can I conceive how Gentlemen, who either cannot afford, or do not chooſe to lay out large Sums of Money in Books, can fall upon a better Expedient for attaining the Means of Knowledge, than by ſome ſuch Scheme as I have propoſed. If my preſent Plan is in any Reſpect exceptionable, and not well calculated to anſwer the Purpoſe intended, I muſt beg Leave to repeat the Requeſt I made in my former Addreſs to the Public, That any Perſon would be ſo good as to point out it's Defects, and to favour me with ſuch Improvements, as may put it upon the beſt Footing for all concerned.

WILLIAM RIND.

PROPOSALS,

For Circulating a Collection of New BOOKS in the City of ANNAPOLIS, and a Circle of Thirty Miles about it.

I. EVERY Subſcriber ſhall pay at the Time of Subſcribing One Guinea, for the Uſe of this Library for one Year.

II. Every Subſcriber ſhall have the Uſe of one Book at a Time, for which he or ſhe ſhall ſend a Ticket or Note, under his or her own Hand, and ſhall have the Liberty of changing them as often as he or ſhe ſhall think proper.

III. Any Subſcriber damaging any Book, ſhall make Satisfaction for the ſame.

IV. Every Subſcriber ſhall have the Uſe of a Folio eight Weeks; a Quarto ſix Weeks; an Octavo four Weeks; and a Duodecimo three Weeks.

V. No Subſcriber, upon any Pretence whatever, ſhall lend any Book belonging to this Collection, under the Penalty of paying for the Book ſo lent, a double Price.

Such Gentlemen and Ladies who intend to ſubſcribe, are deſired to give in their Names immediately, that the Library may be opened.

ANNAPOLIS RACES.

EVERY Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, that runs for the ſaid Purſe, ſhall, if riſing Four next Graſs, carry eight Stone, if Five, eight Stone ten Pounds, if Six, nine Stone ſix Pounds, and Aged, ten Stone: Horſe Plates, and Shoes, not allowed in the Weight.

Every Perſon that puts in a Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, for the ſaid Purſe, ſhall enter the ſame with Mr. JONAS GREEN, on the Tueſday preceding the Race, with whom he ſhall leave ſatisfactory Vouchers of his or her Age, and at the ſame Time ſhall pay Two Piſtoles Entrance, or Half that Sum, if a Subſcriber to the Race; and ſuch Horſes, Mares, or Geldings, of whoſe Ages ſatisfactory Vouchers are not produced, ſhall be deemed Aged.

The Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, that wins any two Heats, wins the Purſe; each Heat to be four Times round the Poles; but if three ſeveral Horſes, Mares or Geldings, win each of them a Heat, then thoſe three, and only they, to run a fourth Heat, and the Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, that wins the fourth Heat, ſhall win the Purſe; any Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, that wins the firſt and ſecond Heats, ſhall be obliged to ſtart again, if required by any of the other Riders, and muſt ſave his Diſtance, to entitle him to the Purſe: No Diſtance a fourth Heat.

In running the Heats, if it cannot be decided, which Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, has his or her Head at the ending Poſt firſt, that Heat goes for nothing, and they may all Start again, except it be in the laſt Heat, and the Doubt between two Horſes, Mares, or Geldings, if either of which had won, the Purſe would have been decided, then they only ſhall ſtart again.

Every Rider ſhall after each Heat is run, come to the Scales with his Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, then and there to alight and not before, and to weigh to the Satisfaction of the Judges, and in caſe of Neglect or Refuſal thereof, or want of Weight, the Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, of ſuch Rider, ſhall have no Share in the Purſe, nor be permitted to ſtart again: But as a Rider may (unknown to the Judges) alight previous to his coming to the Scales, and by them, for want of timely Information, be permitted to ſtart again, ſuch Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, ſhall take Place, the ſame as if it had not happened.

If a Rider falls from his Horſe, and the Horſe is rode in by another, that is of ſufficient Weight, he will take Place the ſame as if it had not happened, provided he goes back to the Place where the Rider fell.

If any Rider ſhall croſs, joſtle, ſtrike, or uſe any foul Play, the Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, he rides, ſhall be deemed diſtanced.

Every Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, that runs on the wrong Side of the Poles, and does not turn back, or is diſtanced in any of the Heats, ſhall have no Share in the Purſe, nor be permitted to run any more.

The Entrance Money to be paid to the ſecond beſt Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, that ſhall ſtart for the Purſe.

If there are three Heats run, the Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, is ſecond beſt, that wins one, and if the Purſe is won by two Heats, the Preference to be determined by the Place they are in at the ſecond Heat.

The Time of Starting will be between One and Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, and Half an Hour will be allowed between each Heat to rub.

All Diſputes that ſhall ariſe to be finally determined by Meſſieurs Thomas Sprigg, Kenſey Johns, and Jonas Green, who are appointed Judges for that Purpoſe.

☞ The next Day will be run for, a Purſe of TWENTY-FIVE PISTOLES, free for any Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, riſing Four next Graſs, to carry eight Stone, each Heat to be three Times round the Poles, and to be entered on the Day preceding the Race, with Mr. Jonas Green, to whom they ſhall pay One Piſtole Entrance, or Half that Sum if a Subſcriber to the Race; the winning Horſe of the Day before, to be excluded; all the other Terms (hereto applicable) to be the ſame as in the preceding Race.

SCHEME of a LOTTERY, for Raiſing ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS, to be applied towards Building a WHARF at Bohemia Ferry, in Cæcil County, Maryland.

As this Undertaking is intended, in a very particular Manner, for the Public Good, no other Recommendation is thought requiſite in it's Favour. The great Advantages accruing from it, to Numbers of the Trading Gentlemen reſiding in the Lower Counties of this Province, and a conſiderable Part of the Colony of Virginia, is beyond Doubt Excitement ſufficient for their unanimous Encouragement of a much more extenſive, though (perhaps in the Iſſue) not more laudable Undertaking. The Situation of the Place muſt undoubtedly Claim the Preference of any other at the Head of the Bay, it being much the neareſt navigable Landing, from whence a conſtant uninterrupted Communication with Philadelphia may, with the greateſt Eaſe, Safety, and Expedition, be maintained. A commodious Road for Cartage, not exceeding 13 or 14 Miles, is already laid out from the Ferry on Bohemia River to Reedy-Iſland. A convenient Waggon for Paſſengers, or Goods, (and more than One upon any Emergency) will conſtantly attend once a Week at the Ferry, when the Scheme ſhall be compleated.

A convenient Wharf and Warehouſe is already built by Capt. Jacob Gooding at his Landing, at Reedy-Iſland, who intends keeping in conſtant Attendance a proper Veſſel, once a Week (or oftener if Neceſſary) to go from thence to Philadelphia.

As ſmall Undertakings may in Time, if properly encouraged, become of great and public Utility, this Scheme is therefore humbly recommended to the impartial Conſideration of the Public, the Managers truſting it will meet with Succeſs adequate to it's Intention.

The SCHEME is as follows:

Prize Money not demanded in Four Months after the Publication of them, will be deem'd as generouſly given to the Purpoſe of the Lottery.
